Going Away .- Mr. Gamble leaves today for Cincinnati to attend the Baptist Sunday school convention to be held in that city this week.

PARLOR CONCERT.-The third parlor entertainment by the ladies of the Episcopal church will be given to-night at the residence of Mr. Samuel Walters. Jupus Honges - We learn from the Gazette' that Judge A. C. Hodges has about made up his mind to locate in Cairo. With the Gazette we shall welcome him

MARRIED.-Mr. Peter Saup was married Sunday afternoon to Mrs. Augusta Botto, Father Huffmans of St. Joseph's church, officiating. The happy couple left on the p.m. train for Ohio.

A regular convocation of Cairo R. A. Chapter, No. 71, will be held at Masonic Hall, this Tuesday evening November 19, 1872, at 73 o'clock. Installation of officers will be a part of the business. F. Korsmeyer, Sec'y.

KENTUCKY LIBRARY ASSOCIATION .- A imted number of Gift Concert tickets for the Kentucky Library Association can be obtained of W. B. Rockwell & Co., on Commercial avenue. The sale will contique until the 25th inst.

ome of them in Cairo soon. The Selden Irwin troupe will arrive in the city in a few days and open out at the Atheneum. This company is said to be composed of good actors, and to put on the boards the best kind of plays.

JEWELRY .- For the fall trade and holday presents. We have just got in the finest stock of solid silver, plated and gold goods ever brought to this city. Gold, silver and ivory head canes, and many arricles attractive and beautiful. Call and see and judge for yourselves We can show you fine goods and low TARER BROS.

A KENTUCKY ARNOLD .- Mr. A. S. Arfrom Cairo to Jackson, Tennessee, by September 1, 1873.

A RASCAL CAUGHT .- On Sunday evening Officers Myers and Arnold arrested William Brown, alias Dan Carr, alias Brocks Dan, a noted broiser, on the charge of having robbed a steamboat engineer of $23 50. The thief made a stubborn resistance, but was overcome and securely lodged in jail. Yesterday Judge Bress bound him over to the circuit court to anwer the charge of grand larceny.

FOR Mayor. - The 'Gazette' suggest Mr. William P. Halliday for mayor. The suggestion is a good one-a bully one-Halliday, if he would consent to run the mayor's office, would be just the man for that place. He would be a trumpet of Cairo's coming greatness, -a walking and mayor-the man for the crists. We believe he could be elected, and his name would decorate the head of a first-class Citizen's Ticket."

THE DOUGHERTY .- Our talented young friend, George A. Dougherty, the able editor of the Jonesboro 'Advertiser,' was in own yesterdry. So our lynx-eyed reporter informs us. That George did not call on the THE BULLETIN causes us many pangs of regret. We have been read out of the late Democratic party by the late leaders and the late rank and file, and now f George and the other leaders of the Radical party "go back" on us, what in the name of patriotism shall we do?

To Young Man .- We are glad to hear that the Sunday evening discourses to young men, by Rev. H. B. Thayer, are attracting attention, and are giving satisfaction to the large audiences who listen to them. Mr. Thayer delivered the second discourse in the series last Sabbath evening. It was eloquent, instructive and profoundly interesting. We understand there are four other lectures in the course. and are glad to learn that interest in discourses is on the increase. Our advice to young men is to hear them all.

Home Again .- Mr. Goldstine, of the firm of Goldstine & Rosenwater, has returned home from New York, where he has been making large purchases of winter dry goods, clothing, etc. Luckily, Mr. Goldstine had completed all his purchases before the Boston fire, and therefore before the late advance in prices. Mesers. Goldstine & Rosenwater can, consequently, sell at prices exceedingly below those now current in this market. They ask the public to call and inspect their goods and ascertain their prices, being satisfied that no one will go away from the store, leaving behind them the bargains this firm are prepared to offer.

COUNTY COURT .- This court convened vesterday, I'. Bross, judge, presiding

> From the state line to White river, 107 miles, work has been vigorously prosecuted the past season, and grading is about finished. The bayous are being rapidly bridged and in the best manner. Track-laying goes on three miles per day. Trains run from Prospect Bluffs to Little Rock, fifty-one miles, since December last, and it is the intention to run them be-tween Little Rock and St. Louis by Decomber, 25th, next. From Little Rock south work is also under good progress; and by next January it will be progressing from there to Fulton, 125 miles, on which part it is expected to run trains by June 1, 1878.

ANOTHER SENSATION .- We are becoming an adept in sensations, and intend to go into the business for a livelihood. A few days ago we threw the town into a frenzy and alienated many of our good Democratic friends by the henrous offense of asserting that the Damocratic party was no longer a kicking institution, and that, if President Grant should do anything THEATRICALS.-We are going to have that we approved, we would applaud him. The suggestion that a Democrat should appland anything right in a political enemy was too much for our Democratic friends, and they turned upon us the cold shoulder. Well; we are not dismayed. We rather like the fuss we kicked up, and intend to go on in the good work. We have now under considerations another sensation, which we are sure will shock many of our Democratic friends more than cold water would Gambrinus. We know that, if we take the contemplated step, we are lost to the friendship of many of our present good friends. The fact is we are thinking about connecting ourself WINES, with one of the religious denominations of the city! We have, our late Democratic friends say, gone over to the Radinold, formerly Sheriff of Hickman county, cals, and now as the crowning act of our Kentucky, and now member of the Ken- apostacy we should, it has been suggested, MIXED DRINKS tucky legislature, was in the city yester- eschew the flowing bowl and take to pray. are compounded in the most approved style day purchasing a large stock of goods. ers! again, And all went merry as a marriage bell." Seldom have we witnessed a scene that recalled to our memory so forcibly the above lines, so familiar to our boyhood days, as that presented to our view at the St. Charles hotel on Friday evening.

We refer to the entertainment given by the "Qui Vive Coterie," a club composed of the young gentlemen of Cairo, and we talking advertisement for the city-a good | congratulate them upon their admirable arrangements, which resulted in such a perfect and grand success.

At an early hour the spacious parlors were prowded with a rich and gay assembly of handsome ladies and gallant gentlemen, who seemed to vie with each other in their endeavors to make mutually pleasant the occasion, in which, we feel assured, they were more than successful. The ladies, those "bright ornaments" upon every occasion, were guy and bandsome in the extreme, and it is impossible to state which was most admired. It is enough to know each and every one was a belle of the evening, and we cannot but compliment the gentlemen of the club upon their selection of ladies to grace the entertainment. As to the gentlemen they were affable and courteous to the utmost degree, and with their names will ever be remembered one of the most pleasant evenings of the season.

Nothing occurred to mar the pleasure of the evening. "All went merry as a marriage bell," and when the wee small hours heralded the approach of dawn the delighted and happy assemblage departed. feeling that the occassion was one ever to be remembered with pleasant associations and happy memories, which will live in their hearts never to die, but to be recalled as resurrected pleasures of the past.
